

7.1 Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities

7.1.1 Measures initiated by the Institution for the promotion of constitutional values and gender equity during the last five years.

Response:

Jeevandeep Law College is committed to take affirmative action towards advancement of safety and Protection of women. In the institution, it is believed that, equally important is the need of spreading awareness of such rights that grants equal opportunities to all its students. Further, the College has incorporated in its yearly plan multiple policies and strategies to achieve gender equality by creating awareness of the same. As integral part of subjects of laws relating to welfare and protection of women, Indian Constitutional law that enshrines gender equality, laws that deals with offences against women, rights available to women in Family Laws, POSH, PCPNDT Act are discussed and debated. With an aim to promoting gender equality, the college has conducted number of workshops, seminars, festivals etc. every year.

Importance to women and their presence is practiced under various aspects as follows,

a. Safety and security

The security of the college is scrutinized to follow a strict code of movement adhering to guidelines for students, teaching, non-teaching staff, visitors etc. Some of the measures employed are as under.

1. College has full time employed security guards including female attendants and students are allowed only after verifying their identity through Identity cards provided to the students.
2. A lady attendant is available on each floor at all times of college hours wherein she can assist women students whenever need arises.
3. No outsider/visitor is allowed in the premises without prior appointment or entry of their name, and other credentials. The college area is under CCTV surveillance as an initiative for women as well as general security.
4. Various committees WDC, Disciplinary Committee, Anti-Ragging Committee, are established and working for safety and security of women. Every year, WDC conducts self-defense workshop, celebration of Women Rights Day, prevention of sexual harassment awareness programs and various such programs for safety and security of women and their development.

The College has constituted Internal Complaints Committee to receive complaints that can be made in case of any sexual harassment. College also has Grievance Cell, Disciplinary Committee, Anti Ragging committee, who are helping in the task of safe environment for female students.

b. Counseling

1. Counseling is an integral aspect of imparting quality education by any institution. Counseling to women students is taken very seriously by the college and personal counseling is available to students at their request.
2. General Counseling is done through motivational lectures and sessions. Counseling is incorporated as part of mentoring sessions. The environment in the College is such that any female student can seek guidance from teachers at any time.

c. Common Rooms

1. There are separate ladies' toilets on each floor and there is a girls' common room in the College, where the female students can relax when required and feel comfortable.
2. Sanitary pad vending machines are installed at appropriate places near wash rooms and girls' common rooms any girl student can avail of the same in hours of need.
3. Sanitary pad vending machine is fitted for lending pads when required. The manner in which the same are to be disposed is framed and is available in requisite place.
